1. The following Soviet military personnel were observed in Wiener Neustadt on 10 January 1952:
 - a. About 400 officers and enlisted men are billeted in Bernersdorferstrasse 10-16; they wear white-bordered blue, blue-bordered black and violet-bordered black epaulets. The bands on officers' caps are green. Trucks were parked in the yard.
 - b. The Kommandantura for the town of Wiener-Neustadt is located at Unger-gasse 27. The commanding officer there is reportedly a colonel. The sentry in front of the building wore violet-bordered black epaulets.
 - c. The Soviet RTO office is located at the railroad station; the officer in charge is a colonel wearing a violet cap band.
 - d. Enlisted men and women of an armored unit are billeted in a house on Wienerstrasse.
 - e. The former hospital is now used as a billet for enlisted men wearing black epaulets.
 - f. The former German air force hospital at Weikersdorferstrasse 64 is now a SAF field hospital.
 - g. About 200 enlisted men with blue-bordered white epaulets are billeted in the Heide housing project. About 150 enlisted men with the same epaulets are billeted in the Badener Siedlung.
